Ordinance Regulating Dangerous and Vicious Dogs Security and Restraint Requirements

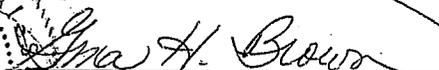

No person shall own, keep, or harbor a dangerous, or vicious dog, as herein defined, except in compliance with the following and other provisions of this ordinance:

- I. Dangerous dogs and potentially dangerous dogs. Dangerous dogs that are determined to be potentially dangerous as herein provided shall be subject to the following regulations.
  - a. While on real property of the person owning, keeping, or harboring it, a dangerous dog shall be kept, secured, and restrained only in one of the following ways.
    - i. In a building with doors, windows, and other exits securely fastened shut under the supervision and control of a responsible adult person capable of such supervision and control, or if not under such supervision and control, then securely tethered inside such a building by a chain capable of restraining the dog.
    - ii. Securely tethered in a locked building, other than a residence, which has secure sides, top and bottom and is constructed out of materials and in a manner which will preclude escape by the dog and prevent entry by small children.
    - iii. While outside the building or enclosure described above, securely leashed with a chain no longer than four (4) feet in length in the hands of, and under the control of a responsible adult person capable of such control and muzzled by a muzzling device sufficient to prevent such dog from biting persons or other animals.
  - b. No persons owning, keeping, or harboring a dangerous dog shall take or remove such a dog from the real property of such person except to bring such dog to a veterinarian or to the County animal pound, to remove such dog permanently from the territorial jurisdiction of Yadkin County, or to provide bonafide exercise necessary for the continued good health of the animal. In the event of such taking of removal, such dog shall be securely enclosed as set forth above for dogs being maintained outside buildings.

Adopted this 21st day of July, 2008 by the Yadkin County Board of Commissioners.
