

Tax Assessor of the Year

On behalf of the North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers, the Publicity and Publications Committee wishes to congratulate Phyllis Adams, Yadkin County Tax Administrator, on her selection by her peers as the 2016 Assessor of the Year at the North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers' annual Fall Conference. This award signifies that Phyllis has worked hard to promote professionalism, education and dedication to the administration of local property taxation. The North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers' 2016 President, Mr. Carl Tighman, and members of the Executive Board hereby congratulate Phyllis on this accomplishment and her contributions to the profession.

On November 17th the North Carolina Tax Association presented Phyllis Adams the award for North Carolina Tax Assessor of the Year! Phyllis's career has been filled with a lot of hard work and achievements. Phyllis has been employed with Yadkin County for 37 years. She has been the Tax Assessor since 1979, and Tax Assessor and Collector since 2000.
