* Interpersonal Skills

* Mediation

* Tutoring/Academic

Enhancement

* Vocational Skills

* Restitution/Community Service

* Temporary Shelter

* Mentoring

* Therapeutic Foster Care

* Substance Abuse Assessments and

* Treatment

* Teen Court

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

Youth who lack prosocial peers, who sometimes or regularly associate with delinquent peers, have moderate or serious school behavior problems, who have substance use or abuse issues, whose parents are willing but unable to appropriately supervise their children and have a history of runaway behavior.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain:

Youth who lack prosocial peers, or sometimes or regularly associate with delinquent peers.

Individual Domain:

Youth with mental health and/or substance use/abuse needs or who have a history of victimization.

Family Domain:

Youth who reside in homes with domestic discord or violence, have parents in need of parent skill building classes, reside in homes where one or more family members uses or abuses alcohol or drugs or have family members who are involved in the criminal justice system.

School Domain:

Youth who have moderate or serious school behavior problems that include truancy, short term suspensions or long term suspensions or have school behavior issues.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. The program has a transportation component.
6. The program serves youth ages 6-17.
7. Applicants are encouraged to be innovative and submit proposals that meet multiple program needs.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
