

NORTH CAROLINA
DEPARTMENT
OF REVENUE

Roy Cooper
Governor

Ronald G. Penny
Secretary

MEMORANDUM

To: County Assessors
From: Doug Huffman, Revenue Administrative Officer III
Local Government Division
Date: June 30, 2022
Subject: Income Eligibility Limit – 2023 Property Tax Relief Programs

On or before July 1 of each year, the North Carolina Department of Revenue is required to determine the income eligibility amount to be in effect for the Elderly or Disabled Property Tax Homestead Exclusion for the taxable year beginning the following July 1. This income eligibility limit is also used to determine the limitations in the Property Tax Homestead Circuit Breaker. County tax offices need this information to update their annual abstracts with the new income eligibility limits.

Under G.S. 105-277.1(a2), for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2008, the income eligibility limit for the Elderly or Disabled Property Tax Homestead Exclusion is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). For taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2009, the income eligibility limit is the amount for the preceding year, adjusted by the same percentage of this amount as the percentage of any cost-of-living adjustment made to the benefits under Titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act for the preceding calendar year, rounded to the nearest one hundred dollars ($100.00).

We have adopted the latest cost-of-living adjustment (COLA), which has been calculated by the Social Security Administration to be 5.9%.

Based on the COLA, the income eligibility limits for 2023 are as follows:

Elderly or Disabled Property Tax Homestead Exclusion: $33,800

Property Tax Homestead Circuit Breaker: $50,700

For additional information on calculating the COLA, please visit the Social Security Administration's website at: <https://www.ssa.gov/oact/cola/latestCOLA.html>.

The 2023 Form AV-9 Application for Property Tax Relief, which is web fillable, is now available on our website at: <https://www.ncdor.gov/av-9-2023-application-property-tax-relief>.

If you have any questions, please contact our office at 919-814-1129.

501 N. Wilmington Street, Raleigh, NC 27640
PO Box 871, Raleigh NC 27602-0871
Website: www.ncdor.gov
An Equal Opportunity Employer